Guardian cryptic crossword No 30,161 set by Paul

Across

1 Tube carrying rainwater - shut up if inverted? (8)
5 Leader from Gujarat with an appropriate garment, testament demanding freedom? (6)
9 Theatre production's opening in a new capital (7)
10 Again pick up on miscalculation in the end by Shakespearean character (7)
11 Blooming fast car? (5)
12 Sound of a cat fed pinch of big, big tablet (9)
13 Gormless fashion leader, subtle clothes (6-6)
17 Resistance between fluid and solid, fluid in rock fits in (4,8)
20 Dubious approach with unknown inscription - questionable text? (9)
22 Supine competitor's arm (5)
23 Tail behind first of spectators in grandstand (7)
24 Time in profit after speculation, capital spent (7)
25 Indicator of provocation? (6)
26 Tuesday nights originally created for rocking (8)

Down

1 Very much sooner than expected, daughter comes first (6)
2 One of those placed in recollection of the war? (6)
3 Dowdy type bedding fool, a reflective character appearing blue (4,5)
4 What Toulouse-Lautrec would do to get thinner, say? (5,8)
6 Upper vertebra eventually cut (5)
7 Quarter of the pack ice (8)
8 Allusion contained by cryptic undone (8)
10 Protest upsetting the Two Ronnies at times? (13)
14 Spot marker in wild antelope, body far away (9)
15 Two dummies in, one taking another out? (8)
16 Wine without label in dish (8)
18 Country where female and male animals reported? (6)
19 Cold back home at the farm (6)
21 Star on Irish wheels (5)

Solution No. 30,160

